

Other Features: Cave/mine

Description

Cave/mine areas are caves or cave-like structures (e.g., mines, hollow dams) that are available for wildlife use.

General Condition of Feature

This feature is not currently known within the Southern Lower Peninsula

Associated Natural Communities

N/A – No associated natural communities known within this ecoregion

Associated Species of Greatest Conservation Need

MAMMALS

silver-haired bat (Lasionycteris noctivagans)
northern bat or northern myotis (Myotis septentrionalis)

MAMMALS cont.

Indiana bat or Indiana myotis (Myotis sodalis)
eastern pipistrelle (Pipistrellus subflavus)

Associated Threats

OTHER

- Historic status/current abundance: Caves and mines are unknown in the Southern Lower Peninsula.

Conservation Actions Needed [Threats addressed]

- No data available

Research and Survey Needs

- Identify subterranean or other structures that may act as hibernacula for bats.

Monitoring

- No data available