

REPTILES

six-lined racerunner

(Apidoscelis sexlineatus)

DISTRIBUTION & ABUNDANCE: State listed as special concern. Only known to occur in Tuscola county.

ASSOCIATED LANDSCAPE FEATURES: prairie; idle/old field; savanna; river/stream/riparian/floodplain corridor; coastal dune/beach; down woody debris

ASSOCIATED THREATS: conversion to agriculture lands; incompatible natural resource mgmt; industrial/residential/recreational development; invasive plants & animals; lack of scientific knowledge; pesticides & herbicides

COMMENTS: Distribution and population status need to be determined. This species may also be known by the name Cnemidophorus sexlineatus.