

INSECTS – FLIES

a net-winged midge

(Blepharicera tenuipes)

DISTRIBUTION & ABUNDANCE: Only known from two locations in the Western Upper Peninsula of Michigan (no point data available). Abundance is unknown.

ASSOCIATED LANDSCAPE FEATURES: cold headwaters & small tributaries; gradient: very fast; rock substrates; clear water

ASSOCIATED THREATS: lack of scientific knowledge; unknown

COMMENTS: Distribution, population status, habitat usage, threats, and general life history information need to be determined.